Members may elect to be active in the Region of their choice.

Constitution - Article VI- Committees

Standing and special committees shall be established as needed to carry out the purposes of the Association. Committee appointments may be made by the President or Board. Members are encouraged to volunteer to participate on Association committees.

Constitution - Article VII – Meetings

There shall be one regular business meeting of the general membership, which shall take place at the annual Spring Conference. Other meetings may be scheduled by the President and/or the Board as deemed necessary.

Regional meetings shall be held as necessary and are encouraged to be held monthly. The time and place shall be determined by the Regional Representative, who shall so notify the President and Executive Director.

Constitution - Article VIII – Dues and Finance

Dues to the Association shall be determined annually by the Board, with changes approved in accordance with Article IX, Amendments, of the Bylaws. Each region will be allocated funds to provide for the operation of regional activities. This amount shall be determined annually by the Board and shall be specified in the annual budget presented to the membership.

Constitution - Article IX – Amendments

Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed, in writing, by a current member, at regular Association meeting or to the Board and shall be voted upon. All amendments to the Constitution shall be revised by the board, which shall make a report to the membership. All proposed amendments to the Constitution shall be presented to and voted upon by the entire active membership by ballot or at a statewide meeting of the membership. A majority affirmative vote of the returned ballots is necessary for approval of the amendment(s).

Bylaws

Bylaws - Article I – Duties of State Officers and Executive Director

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the President to preside or to arrange for presiding officers at all state meetings and conferences. The President shall be Chairperson and a member of the Executive Board and shall call extra meetings of the Board (1) whenever he or she deems it necessary, or (2) whenever he or she is requested to do so by a majority of the members of the Board. The President shall also attend the Board's annual retreat and Board meetings. The President shall provide leadership for all activities of the Association and perform all other duties pertaining to his/her office. The President shall appoint special committees as provided in the Constitution and Bylaws of the Association. Upon request by the region, the President shall arrange for visitations by the President and/or designee to regional meetings.

Section 2. The President–Elect, shall preside at the meeting(s) in the absence of the President. The President–Elect shall attend the Board's annual retreat and Board meetings. The President–Elect will perform other duties as assigned by the President or the Board and will be responsible for conducting the annual Board transition meeting.

Section 3. The Secretary shall keep a complete and accurate record of all regular meetings of the Association and all meetings of the Board. The Secretary shall have the records present at all regular meetings of the Association and of the Board. Correspondence and special conference notices may be sent by the Secretary as requested. At the expiration of the term of office, the Secretary shall turn over to the successor all books, records, and property of the Association for which he or she is custodian. The Secretary shall attend the Board's annual retreat and Board meetings. The Secretary will perform other duties as assigned by the President or the Board.

Section 4. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the monies due the Association and shall keep an accurate record of all Association funds. The Treasurer shall have his or her records present at all regular meetings of the Association and of the Board. The Treasurer shall provide a current accounting of all Association revenue and expenditures to date at the annual transition meeting to facilitate the development of budget allocations for the following fiscal year. The Treasurer shall present a budget to the general membership annually following approval by the Board. At the expiration of the term of office, and after approval of an auditing committee, the Treasurer shall turn over to the successor all money, books, records and property of the Association for which he or she is custodian. The Treasurer shall attend the Board's annual retreat and Board meetings. The Treasurer will perform other duties as assigned by the President or the Board.

Section 5. The Past President may assist the Executive Director with coordination and communication of legislative activities, including written position statements, resolutions and testimony. The Past President shall also perform such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Board.

Section 6. The Executive Director, hired as a consultant by the Association, shall perform the contractual duties as specified in the consultant contract between the Executive Director and the Association. The Executive Director shall be responsible for planning, organizing, and conducting annual educator career fairs; preparing communications as deemed necessary by the President and the Board; keeping the Board informed about legislative issues; and other duties as assigned by the President. An annual review of the consultant contract will be conducted by the Board.

Bylaws - Article II – Duties of Regional Representative Officers

Section 1. The primary task of the Regional Representative shall be to prepare timely and effective programs for the region which provide information and in-service to members. The Regional Representative shall be a member of the Board and shall respond to requests from the Board pertaining to the dissemination or collection of information and will work to ensure that the regional membership needs are communicated to the Board. The Regional Representative shall also be active in developing membership in WSPA. The Regional Representative shall perform such other duties as may be assigned by the President or the Board.

Section 2. The Regional Representative/Designee shall send out notices of all regional meetings, arrange meeting places, arrange meals as needed, and accept reservations from members. At the end of the term of the office of the Regional Representative all books, records, and property of the region shall be turned over to the newly elected Regional Representative. Regional Representatives are encouraged to involve other regional members as needed to fulfill the duties of the position.

Section 3. Each Region shall have one vote when Board votes are taken whether or not that Region has one Regional Representative or two Co-Representatives. Region 2 shall have one vote representing both North and South Regions.

Section 4. Regional Representatives shall attend the annual board retreat. For co-representatives, attendance shall include the incoming and standing co-representatives. The outgoing co-representative shall not attend.

Bylaws - Article III – Qualification, Terms of Office, Vacancy, and Removal of Executive Board Members, and Regional Representatives Officers and Executive Director

Section 1. All Association officers shall have major responsibilities in the area of personnel administration at the time of nomination and election for vacant positions.

Section 2. If, after having been elected, an officer assumes responsibilities in an area outside of personnel administration, the President (or President-Elect if the President is involved), will appoint a committee to review the duties of the new position to determine the eligibility of the individual to continue in the Association office. The Committee will send its recommendation to the Board.

Section 3. Terms of office for elected officers shall be as follows:

President-Elect	1	Secretary	2
President	1	Treasurer	3
Past President	1	Region Reps	2

Section 4. Regions select Regional Representatives for two (2) year terms of office to the Board. If a Region elects to have Co-Representatives then the term for each Co-Representative shall be two (2) years rotating with the other Co-Representative so that only one Representative is elected each year. Region 2 shall select one Regional Representative for Region 2 North, and one Regional Representative for Region 2 South.

Section 5. Each year, new officers shall be announced in the spring and will officially take office on July 1.

Section 6. In the event of a vacancy in the office of the President prior to January 1, the President-Elect shall at once succeed to the office of the President and shall serve the remainder of the vacant term. After January 1, the President-Elect shall also assume the office of the President and shall serve for the remainder of the vacant term for which he or she was elected.

Section 7. In the event of the vacancy in the office of the President-Elect, a special election will be held to elect a new President-Elect.

Section 8. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Secretary or Treasurer, the president shall, with the concurrence of the Board, appoint a member to complete the remaining portion of the term of office.

Section 9. In the event of the vacancy in the office of Regional Representative or Regional Secretary, the regional unit shall determine the procedure for filling the vacancy.

Section 10. The Board shall be responsible for negotiating a contract with a consultant to perform the duties of the Executive Director.

Section 11. Any Board member, who in the judgment of the majority of the Board, is found to be performing the responsibilities as an elected representative of the Association in a less than satisfactory manner will be informed of same by the President of the Association. The President will give the Board member an opportunity to present any mitigating circumstances, either orally or in writing. After discussion of the circumstances with the Board, the President will then inform the member of the Association's decision regarding the elected position.

Bylaws - Article IV – Membership
